18 Defendant Dylan Wade Causbie is charged in a five count indictment with conspiracy, in 19 violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371; manufacturing counterfeit currency, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §
20 471; possessing counterfeit currency, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 472; possessing electronic
21 images of counterfeit currency, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 474; felon in possession of a firearm
22 and ammunition, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1); and aiding and abetting in violation of 23 Title 18 U.S.C. § 2. The United States moved for Defendant's detention pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §
24 3142, and asked for a detention hearing, as permitted by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). On August 1,
25 2013, following a hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and considering the Pretrial Services
26 report, the indictment filed in this case, and the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), the 27

1 Court ordered defendant detained, as no condition or combination of conditions in 18 U.S.C. §
2 3142(c) will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required. See 18 U.S.C. §§
3 3142(e) and (f); United States v. Motamedi, 767 F.2d 1403, 1406 (9th Cir. 1985).

4 After hearing argument from both counsel for Defendant and counsel for the government,
5 the Court granted the government's motion to detain. Specifically, the Court noted that it was 6 concerned with Defendant's probation violation related to his prior felony conviction for arson.
7 Shortly after he was placed on probation in Missouri following his 2012 arson conviction, he 8 received an opportunity to attend college in Colorado. Colorado would not accept supervision of 9 Defendant; accordingly, the Missouri court allowed Defendant to attend college in Colorado
10 unsupervised. When Defendant dropped out of college and returned to Missouri, however, he 11 failed to notify the court. Instead, he moved to California where he is alleged to have committed 12 the offenses for which he has been indicted in this District.

13 Further, after he was arrested by state officials for the conduct at issue here, he was 14 released. A federal agent contacted Defendant and notified him that a federal arrest warrant was 15 forthcoming. Defendant told the agent he would voluntarily surrender that afternoon. He did
16 not. Instead, he received a hair cut, which drastically changed his appearance, and then spent 17 several days moving around until agents finally located him in a garage. He also failed to make 18 his state court appearance during the time the federal agents were trying to locate him. In other 19 words, he attempted to hide from the federal authorities.

20 The above conduct, coupled with the escalating and serious nature of Defendant's criminal 21 activity, and his lack of any stable employment or residence, and lack of any family or friends in 22 this District, leads the Court to find that the government has shown by a preponderance of the 23 evidence that Defendant not condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure 24 Defendant's appearance.

25 ORDER

26 Defendant is ordered detained as no condition or combination of conditions in 18 U.S.C.
27 § 3142(c) will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required.
28

1 Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated
2 representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from
3 persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. See 18 U.S.C. §
4 3142(i)(2). Defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with 5 counsel. See 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)(3). On order of a court of the United States or on request of an
6 attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver
7 defendant to the United States Marshal for a court appearance. See 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)(4).

8 IT IS SO ORDERED.
